WILL PRESS BUTTON AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Roosevelt Will Open Masonic Housewarming at New Temple Tonight.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS WILL BE FEATURE

Celebration Is Fitting Finale of Masons' Efforts to Provide

President Roosevelt will press a but-ton at the White House tonight at 8 o'clock, that will be the signal for the beginning of the festivities at the new Masonic Temple, in connection with the weeks' housewarming that has been planned by the Masons of Wash-ington, as a fitting finale to the sucpessful termination of their efforts to provide themselves with a home com-mensurate with the importance of the order in the District.

Tonight will be known as Blue Lodge night. Tomorrow night will be chapter night. Wednesday night the Eastern Star will be the guests of honor, and on Thursday night the Shriners, wearing their fezes, will be much in evidence. Friday night the commandery members will hold forth.

Vaudeville Acts.

Special features provided for tonight's housewarming include vaudeville acts by members of "The Wolf" Company, playing this week at the Belasco Thethe Featherstones, the Saenger bund Octet, the Painter-Street Company, and the Atlantic City Cakewalkers.

The vaudeville program will be carried out in the auditorium on the top floor. There is also to be dancing every evening in the main auditorium on the ground floor, and a refreshment palace in the banquet hall in the basement will be open from 7:30 to 11:30 o'clock each

Midday Luncheon.

The ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star will conduct a midday luncheon at the new temple from 11:30 to 2 o'clock at the nominal price of 25 cents.

The Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the New York Avenue Presby-terian Church, delivered a sermon on "Health" yesterday morning. It was the first appearance of the minister in his pulpit since his return from a sum-mer vacation, and he was greeted by an unusually large congregation. Dr. Radeliffe's sermon was based largely on the work being done individ-ually and collectively by members of the international congress of tuberculosis.
